SUBJECT No. 10.

Opening of Typewriting and Shorthand Courses in all High Schools.

Mr. A. Ananthiah Shimoga Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—It is prayed that orders may be passed that Shorthand and Typewriting should be taught in all High Schools and necessary convenience and equipment provided therefor.

SUBJECT No. 11.

Appointment of an overseer under each District Inspector of Education.

Messrs. A. Ananthiah and P. Venkappaiya Shimoga Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—As it is, the Circle Inspector of Education is given an overseer to attend to the repairs of school buildings in four districts. This arrangement may be done away with, as it is more expensive and less practicable. An overseer may be appointed to work under each District Inspector of Education. This arrangement not only saves time but also money and some really useful work can be expected in promptly attending to the work of repairs to school buildings.

SUBJECT No. 12.

Facilities for physical development in schools, etc.

Mr. J. R. Isaac, Indian Christian Association, Bangalore.

Summary of Representation.—Adequate facilities may be given by the Education Department for physical development of boys during their school and college courses.

SUBJECT No. 13.

Discontinuance of the system of levying contributions from raiyats for school buildings.

Messrs. Veeregowda and Munisami Gowda, Dodballapur Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—As an education cess is now being collected from the raiyats, the practice of taking contribution from them for the construction of school buildings may be discontinued. The cost may be met by Government.

SUBJECT No. 14.

Establishment of hostels for all schools.

Messrs. H. V. Chandrasekharayya, R. Gopalaswami Iyer. B. Abdul Rahmon and H. Krishnappa, Bangalore City Municipality.

Summray of Representation.—Is is requested that a hostel for students may be established for all the schools both general and technical.

SUBJECT No. 15.

Forwardal of books by service post from the Central Book Depot when private persons apply for the same.

Messrs. Anantha-lakshminaranappa, Anantharajappa and Veerappa Gowda, Tumkur Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Books are sent by service post from the Central Book Depot if the school masters in service of Government send money in advance. Postage is charged extra in case of private persons, even though they remit money in advance. The postal charge is high when a large consignment of books is ordered. It is therefore prayed that the books may be ordered to be sent by service post to private persons also.
